

CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS
OF THE
NEW MEXICO STATE 4-H COUNCIL
Revised July 2019

ARTICLE I - NAME

The official name of this organization shall be the New Mexico State 4-H Council.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

The purpose of the New Mexico State 4-H Council is to promote all phases of 4-H club work, assist in developing 4-H projects and activities, assist in planning State 4-H Conference, encourage organization of county councils, promote the exchange of ideas, and promote a statewide youth leadership program.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

SECTION I

No senior 4-H member can be denied membership in the New Mexico State 4-H Council due to race, color, religion, gender, age, disability, national origin, veteran status, sexual orientation, or ancestry. All senior 4-H members must pay their activity fees to be eligible for membership in the Council. Activity fees for all senior members attending State 4-H Conference are payable upon registration of delegates for the State 4-H Council during State 4-H Conference.

SECTION II

The New Mexico State 4-H council shall consist of five elected officers, four to five non-voting ex-officio members (four to five Ambassadors) and two voting delegates from each county shall serve.

SECTION III

The New Mexico State 4-H Council voting delegates shall be selected by county councils. Where a county council is not organized, a senior club may select its voting delegates.

SECTION IV

The State 4-H Leadership Team shall be made up of the State 4-H Council consisting of five Officers and the four to five ex-officio members, consisting of the Ambassadors made up of four to five members. The State 4-H Leadership Team will not count against their county's quota for representation and will not be voting delegates.

SECTION V

Two delegates elected as county representatives will be members of the New Mexico State 4-H Council. The delegates are to be elected at county level. If your county has a State Council Officer, that officer can not serve as the county delegate.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICES

SECTION I

The offices of the New Mexico State 4-H Council shall be president, vice president, secretary, reporter, and recreation/song leader. All shall be elected. The recreation/song leader will be elected after an audition.

SECTION II

No county shall furnish more than two elected state officers during a given year. No person shall serve more than one term in the same office but is eligible to hold one additional office, not to exceed two total terms. The term of office for this organization shall be one year--from annual meeting to annual meeting.

SECTION III

Any senior 4-H member who has paid annual activity fees is eligible to become an officer, provided they complete the application process as outlined in Article V, Section II.

SECTION V

In the event that an officer cannot complete his/her term of office, the executive committee may appoint a replacement that has completed the application process for that current leadership team year with the approval of the State 4-H Office.

ARTICLE V - ELECTION OF OFFICERS

SECTION I

The officers of the New Mexico State 4-H Council shall be elected at the annual meeting.

SECTION II

Applications to run for office must be approved by the applicant's county and submitted to the New Mexico State 4-H Office by the designated deadline. Candidates must complete application process to be eligible for nomination. Nominations of the approved applicants will be made from the floor by voting delegates during the annual meeting.

SECTION III

Qualifications under Article IV must be observed in elections of all officers.

SECTION IV

Elections shall be by roll call of counties; the Executive Committee will vote only in the event of a tie. Candidates receiving 51% of the vote will be elected. In case no candidate receives 51% of the vote, a run-off election will be held between the two (2) candidates receiving the most votes. In case of a tie between the two (2) finalists, a secret ballot will be taken, from the delegates and the Executive Committee. The candidate with 51% of the votes shall be declared the winner.

SECTION V

Any qualified candidate who has been defeated in the voting in any previous office is eligible to be re-nominated for any remaining office. A candidate is any member who has been nominated by a voting delegate in the nominating session of the State 4-H Council. Officers will be elected in the following order: president, vice president, secretary, reporter, and recreation/song leader.
