

Important Information for Friday

Friday, November 13th (Optional)

Registration will be held at NMSU Gerald Thomas Hall, Room 194, outside the Auditorium, from 1:00-6:00 pm.

NMSU Parking- Friday only

If you arrive before 5:00 pm on Friday, you will need to obtain an NMSU visitor parking pass. Click on this link, fill out the form, print your pass, and stick it in your window. You won't need a pass on Saturday.

<https://auxadminforms.nmsu.edu/ParkingForms/ePermit.aspx>

Tour Opportunities- 2:00 - 4:30 pm (Please choose only one)

- NMSU University Museum- Explore cultures and human experiences from the Southwest and around the world through unique collections, exhibits, and hands-on learning. The University Museum connects history, culture, research, and education.
- NMSU Arthropod Museum- Discover New Mexico's largest arthropod collection, featuring more than half a million specimens gathered over 100 years. Explore the incredible diversity of insects and other arthropods while learning how the collection supports research, teaching, and outreach.
- NMSU Kinesiology Lab- Explore the science of the human body and movement! See Anatomage tables that create detailed 3-D views of human anatomy and discover how the body's systems work together.
- NMSU Zuhl Museum- Discover where art meets natural history! The Zuhl Museum features more than 1,800 remarkable geological specimens, including petrified wood, fossils, and minerals from around the world.
- New Mexico Chile Pepper Institute- Spice up your visit at the Chile Pepper Institute! Learn about chile pepper varieties, including New Mexico pod types, explore educational resources, and discover seeds and chile-related products.
- New Mexico Farm & Ranch Heritage Museum- Experience 4,000 years of New Mexico's agricultural history through interactive exhibits, demonstrations, artifacts, and educational programs that bring the state's farming and ranching heritage to life. Admission: $7 Adults | $5 Children

Wine Tasting- 5:00-6:30 pm

Join NMSU's School of Hotel, Restaurant and Tourism Management for an educational introduction to the wines of New Mexico. Through an engaging presentation and a guided wine tasting, participants will learn about wine characteristics, production, tasting techniques, and the unique qualities of New Mexico's wine industry. This relaxed, informative experience is perfect for beginners and wine enthusiasts looking to expand their knowledge and appreciation. Participants must be at least 21 years of age. An additional fee of $20 per participant is required.

Enchilada Fundraiser

Support CAMP students by participating in their enchilada plate fundraiser on Friday evening. Plates are $15 per person and include your choice of red or green enchiladas and a canned soft drink. You may pay the students directly in cash, via Venmo, Cash App, or Zelle. Because the students need the number of red and green enchilada plates in advance, please email Teresa Dean at terestru@nmsu.edu to participate and include your plate preference.

Round Table Discussion- 6:30- 8:00 pm

Join fellow 4-H volunteers, parents, and Extension professionals for an open and engaging roundtable discussion focused on strengthening the New Mexico 4-H program. Participants will share successful ideas, discuss common challenges, ask questions, and learn from others' experiences statewide. This collaborative session provides an opportunity to build connections, exchange practical solutions, and ensure volunteer voices help guide future training, resources, and program support.